COURTESY FOR HORSEBACK RIDERS ON SHARED TRAILS

- ☞ Help with the maintenance on the land where you ride.
  - ☞ Train your horse to be around other people, other animals, bicycles and motorized vehicles.
  - ☞ Let someone know where you are going & when you will return.
  - ☞ Show your gratitude to landowners.
  - ☞ Park in designated/authorized parking areas only.
  - ☞ Get to know other users. Talk to them and be friendly. Say hello and smile.
  - ☞ Always stay on the right side of the trail (no matter how wide). This helps to avoid accidents and head-on collisions.
  - ☞ Always look ahead, beside and behind you.
  - ☞ When riding downhill yield to uphill traffic. Uphill traffic has the right-of-way. Always wait at the top of a hill or the first safe spot to stop until the uphill traffic has passed.
- Take responsibility for yourself. You may not be able to change someone else's behavior but you can change your own.

LONG VALLEY TRAIL ASSOCIATION

The LVTA owes its ability to create a trail network completely to the willingness of private landowners to permit access to their property. If you own property in Washington Township, would you be willing to allow riding access to LVTA members if that property connects to or extends existing trails?

_____ Does an existing trail currently cross your land?

_____ Is Patriots Path or Columbia Trail adjacent to your Land? _____
 Your Block _____ Your Lot _____

I hereby acknowledge that I have read the Long Valley Trail Association Rules of Conduct. I agree on behalf of myself and any/all family members for whom this application is made, to abide by these rules. I understand that any rule infraction by family members, my guests or me may be grounds for membership termination. Further, I understand that horseback riding is an assumed risk activity and I hereby release from any and all liability the Long Valley Trail Association, its members, its Board of Directors and Officers, landowners and agencies holding properties through which its trails pass.

The Long Valley Trail Association respects the privacy of the landowners through whose property we pass. Therefore, the LVTA will not publish or provide trail maps. Officer of the LVTA will provide trail location information.

The best way to learn the trails is to help with our trail marking and clearing workdays!
